"I am happiest in my studio, listening to music and creating a piece of artwork, with the dogs lying around passing judgment. I find that art comes from the soul; I am passionate about colour, shape, texture and form and incorporate that into my paintings. I love the simplicity of shapes. When I paint I get lost in my artwork; it can take on a life of its own and time passes unnoticed. It's very meditative; I am at peace in my studio. I paint in acrylic for its versatility and quickness of drying."

Jane has lived in West Vancouver all her life. She studied art at Capilano College and has taken courses with the Federation of Canadian Artists and numerous workshops with well known Canadian artists over the years. She has traveled extensively in Europe and has been inspired by the warm earthy tones of France and Italy which are very different from the refreshing cool and subtle colours of BC. Jane paints full time in her home studio.

Jane is an active member of the Federation of Canadian Artists and the North Shore Artists' Guild, where she has received numerous Honourable Mention Awards and Juror's Choice Awards. Her work can be found in private collections in Hong Kong, Bermuda, California, Colorado, Ontario, Alberta, and BC. She is represented by Rendezvous Art Gallery, Vancouver; Jenkins Showler Art Gallery, White Rock; Bauer's Art and Framing, West Vancouver.

"Art is not what you see but what you make others see."

—Salvador Dali
